Why a barcamp?

TYPO3Camp Vienna is organized, like all TYPO3Camps, as an barcamp-event. This means that the barcamp is an open event with open workshops and sessions without predetermined agenda. The sessions and their topics are chosen and moderated by the organizers from the proposals of all participants.

This creates an open culture and gives all participants the opportunity to learn new things, exchange ideas with experts and to present themselves.

Why sponsor?

TYPO3Camp Vienna is an independent and non-profit event. It is organized by volunteers and financed mainly by sponsors.

Sponsoring advantages

As a sponsor you support the Open Source Project TYPO3. You get the unique chance to present your company and your brand as part of an innovative event format. You get direct contact with your target audience, whether as an employer or as a service provider. With our sponsoring packages you generate a high number of contacts via a variety of media.

Please contact us for additional information via t3cvienna@gmail.com

Target group

Our target group consists of all members of the TYPO3 community, like developers, integrators, project managers, editors, agency managers and all IT-deciders around the online adjacent industry.
